

Go On the Road for a Good Story

Student Lesson Guide

Print and use this guide as you complete the on-line lesson. Fill in the information as you go.

Stories are Important

Why does Penelope Trunk, career consultant, list tell a story as her first step in Acing a Job Interview?

Listen and Learn

Road Trip Nation helps students define their own road in life by giving them an opportunity to go out and listen to successful people's stories...View at least two of the stories suggested in the online lesson. Then fill-in the information for each one.

Name of Story Teller	What was the story about?	What did the story say about the storyteller?	Why will you remember this story?

Compose Your Story

List 3 ideas you have for your story. Turn the paper over and write a draft of your story using one of your ideas.

Story Idea	What will the story say about you?	Why will people remember your story?

Practice Your Story

List several people you can count on to listen and help you with your story.
